

CIS Initial Training Program Contents

	DATE
Introduction	12/99
Module 1: Office Culture	TBD
Module 2: Overview of the NCI and the CIS Program (PDF)	12/99
Module 3: Role of the Information Specialist (PDF file)	04/03
Module 4: Overview of the Partnership Program (PDF file)	08/02
Module 5: Quality Assurance (PDF file)	02/95
Module 6: Communication (PDF file)	01/03
Module 7: Resources and Referrals	04/02
Module 8: Data Collection	08/02
Module 9: PDQ (PDF file)	12/99
Module 10: Cancer Biology (PDF file)	03/02
Module 11: Cancer Prevention, Early Detection, and Diagnosis	TBD
Module 12: Treatment Overview (PDF file)	08/00
Module 13: Clinical Trials (NCI Specialized Training)	2002
Module 14: Solid Tumors/Breast Cancer Model ¹ (PDF file)	07/02
Module 15: Hematologic/Lymphatic Cancers	TBD
Module 16: Psychosocial and Survivorship Issues (PDF file)	05/03
Module 17: Smoking Cessation (PDF file) Handouts and Exercises	10/00
Module 18: Technology	TBD

¹This module uses breast cancer as a model for learning about solid tumors. Other site-specific modules that were included in the previous Information Specialist's Training, including lung, colon, and prostate cancer can be reviewed with trainees as needed after completion of the CIS Training Program.

² This module contains excerpts from Facing Forward: Issues for Cancer Survivors (NCI Specialized Training.)